Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 3 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. The dependency of claim 3 is unclear, as the preamble recites, "A device according to the preceding claim". It appears that the applicant intends for the claim to depend from claim 2, however, as presented, the claim is not proper in accordance with U.S. practice.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, merely recites structural elements and their function, and failing clearly define the relationships of the structural elements with respect to one another, in order to clearly define the structure of the apparatus as a whole, and thus fail to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with limitations lacking antecedent basis, e.g. "the rotation device" (claim 1, line 11), "its firmly-attached handle" (claim 2, line 24), "the perpendicular surface of the adherent wall" (claim 2, lines 29 and 30).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1-10, as well as understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Weisband (5,313,857).

Weisband ('857) discloses an apparatus for opening containers, the apparatus having a plate with adjustable walls for gripping a jar lid, and a flexible band having a winding drum for holding the container.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Chung, Cope, Dumont, Teeter et al., Sade, Freeland, Grimes, Halpin, Barrow, Whalen, McKim, and Ragatz each disclose an apparatus which utilizes a strap for gripping and turning a device.
